"An Original Old-Fashioned Melodrama"

Directed by Guy Bergquist
Musical Direction and Oleo Staging by Jim Fritzler

House Policy

Welcome to Comic Cabaret Unlimited! The atmosphere of our production is intended to allow you, the audience member, to enjoy and even to participate in the entertainment experience. You are allowed (even encouraged) to express yourself by booing the dastardly villian and/or cheering the stalwart hero as well as throwing popcorn to/at the players. However, DO NOT THROW OTHER ARTICLES such as peanuts, cups, chairs, tables, etc. Our actors are fragile and we cannot afford to lose them! (If you feel the urge to throw money, please be sure its paper money. Save your coins for tips!) Enjoy the show.

About Comic Cabaret Unlimited

Comic Cabaret Unlimited is a professional theatre company dedicated to providing entertainment in a relaxed environment where an audience can completely enjoy itself while experiencing a quality theatrical presentation. A core group of seven members who serve as directors, musicians, technicians, and performers, have recently moved to Connecticut after producing more than 20 shows over the past three years at The Melodrama Theatre in Austin, Texas. This core has been joined by a group of talented performers from the local area. Together, we have worked closely over the past several weeks with one common goal, to make "Love Rides the Rails" the most entertaining show possible.

Comic Cabaret Unlimited is looking for a permanent home where we can produce shows on a full time basis. Meanwhile, we would like to thank the producers and the Ivoryton Playhouse Foundation for giving us the opportunity of performing for you.

We hope you enjoy the show!!!
